oreword

In days to come when the pages of this book are turned, if there is awakened a pleasant memory of hours and days spent at C. C., our efforts will not have been in vain. May the friendships, the ideals and the inspirations gained on the Hill always grow greater and stronger and be the burning torch of our lives.

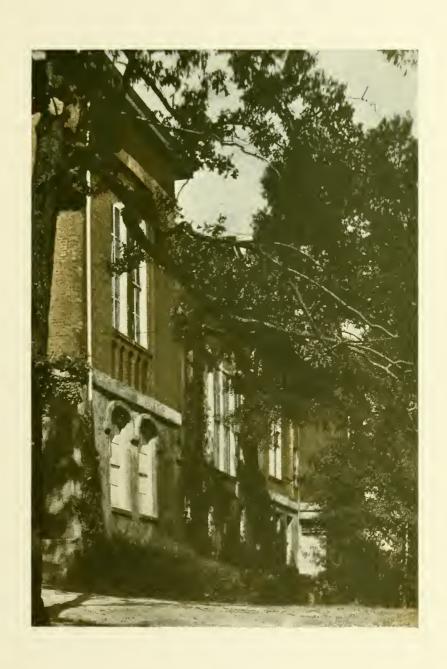

Dedication

We, the Students of LaGrange College, dedicate this volume of the Quadrangle to one who has been a modest, yet ever-ready helper to the students of the college and an elevating influence to the college as a whole, Professor Weston LaFayette Murray.

In Memoriam

CORNELIA BROWNLEE, 1933

Her soul was like a fragile violin,

Vibrating to the music of the spheres;

What high seraphic songs, what rhapsodies,

Fall today upon her listening ears.

Oh, hearts that mourn her passing, yet remember

For her there is no shadow and no pain;

Only the sound of heavenly harp-notes falling

About her in a bright celestial rain.

Alma Mater

Hail to thee, our Alma Mater:
Guardian of our days;
For thy spirit, never failing
We would sing thy praise,
High aloft we hold thy banner,
Ever loyal, true;
Hail to thee, our Alma Mater,
Hail to thee, LaGrange.

In thy mighty grove of learning,
Wisdom's path we've sought;
High upon thy lofty hilltop
Visions have been wrought.
From our hearts we sing the chorus,
Let the sound prolong!
Hail to thee, our Alma Mater,
Hail to thee, LaGrange.

CANDIDATE FOR A.B. DEGREE

HISTORY

"Love, sweetness, goodness in her person shined."

As president of the class Sue has indeed proved herself to be the leader, and a very capable one. Her lovable personality has won for her many friends. She works wholeheartedly and plays wholeheartedly. To her life is a song which she gladly shares with others. May the future bring to her brightness and happiness which she well deserves.

HISTORY

"It's the smiles you wear

That make the sun shine everywhere."

Sue is one of our town Seniors but she has won a place in the hearts of all. Her cheery disposition cannot be forgotten. Through her efforts the Scroll has progressed and she is well paid by the appreciation of her Schoolmates. May her life be one of roses with just enough thorns to lend variety.

"Modest and kind and fair,
The freshness of spring in

"Alice" may be young in years but her wisdom, her dry humor and good disposition are qualities which are admired and almost envied by her classmates. She is sincere when serious but always ready to enjoy a joke, to tease or be teased and always willing to contribute her part to the fun. As president of the Y. W. C. "Science! true daughter of Old Time thou art! Who alterest all things with thy peering eyes."

Some may say that Sarah is stubborn, but she certainly knows what she wants and usually gets it. She is the kind of girl we are proud to have as a friend. Her generosity and willingness to co-operate add to her lovable personality. It is largely to her efforts that this book is due. May her future discoveries be adventures in the realms of joy and great attainments.

A Word From The Seniors

We hope you will pardon some old friends while they jot down a little of their happiness as it bubbles over. It's about an old L. C. custom. We'd just like to offer a suggestion to those who are to follow. Just make up your mind where you want to go for a Senior trip, set that as your goal and—well, you're practically there. It's an experience which you will never forget. Something to tell your grandchildren about! We'll give you a little idea about what a grand time we had, though you'll have to go yourself to really know what we're trying to say. We selected New Orleans—well, ask New Orleans!

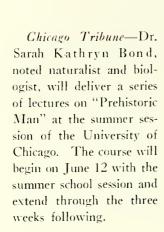

From our headquarters, Hotel Monteleone, we set out to see New Orleans. From nine until two of the first morning there we saw first the American side of the city and then the French, Spanish, and Creole section, known as Vieux Carré. In the American side some points of interest were Tulane and Loyola Universities, the City Libraries, Country Club, Audubon Park, City Park, old and new cemeteries which are noted for their beauty and quaintness. In Le Vieux Carré we saw and learned the history of the old French market, St. Louis Cathedral, Pontalba Apartments, Spanish Cabildo, Jackson Square, the oldest standing U. S. mint, and the Napoleon Bonaparte house.

On Easter Sunday we attended mass at the Jesuits' Church. Sunday afternoon we boarded the New S. S. President for a three-hour harbor trip up and down the Mississippi. The last day of our trip was spent visiting Charity Hospital, Lake Pontchartrain, and the business section of the city. No one leaves New Orleans without having eaten at the famous Antoine's Restaurant which was established in 1840; therefore, we had lunch there on Monday. As some one has said: "The only disadvantage of New Orleans is that it is hard to leave." Thus the Seniors found "America's most interesting city."

After having made this trip which we had anticipated with so much pleasure for four years, we wish to say to the Senior classes which follow us that we sincerely hope that you will derive as much pleasure and benefit from your class trips as we did from the trip to New Orleans.

To each person who had a part in making this trip possible we say: "Thank you."

CLIPPINGS FROM NEWSPAPERS 1948

Dr. Bond received her B.S. degree from La-Grange College in La-Grange, Georgia, and her M.A. degree from Emory University. Since receiving her Ph.D. degree from Columbia University, she has studied at the University of Heidelberg. Since her return to the United States three years ago, she has been connected with the Hopkins University.

Tallahassee Morning News — Miss Elizabeth Yarbrough of Spartanburg, South Carolina, has joined the faculty of Florida State College for Women in the capacity of Director of Physical Education. Miss Yarbrough received her B.S. degree from LaGrange College in LaGrange, Georgia. She received her training in physical culture at the University of Southern California. She comes to us from Converse College in Spartanburg, where she was director of Physical educa-

Newnan Herald—Miss Alice Lovern arrived here yesterday to spend several months with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Lovern. Miss Lovern has spent the past five years in the Belgian Kongo, where she has served the Mission Board of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, as a teacher in the Mission school. She is now at home on a year's furlough.

The Atlanta Journal—Miss Louise Hawks, famous concert pianist, will be presented in a recital at the auditorium of the Atlanta Woman's Club this evening at eight thirty.

The recital will be sponsored by the Atlanta Music Club.

Miss Hawks, a native Georgian, received her diploma in piano from La-Grange College and her Bachelor of Music degree from the Boston Conservatory of Music. She has gained national recognition as as a concert pianist.

LaGrange News—Mrs.
John H. Carlton of Fortworth, Texas, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Cleo Traylor, at her home on McLendon avenue. Mrs. Carlton will be pleasantly remembered as Miss Sue Traylor.

New York Times—Madame Louise, modiste of the firm, L. Dobbs, L. & D. will sail for Paris on the S. S. Berengeois, June 9. While there, Madame Louise will assist Fean Paton in the designing of fall fashions.

CLIPPINGS FROM NEWSPAPERS 1948

The Atlanta Journal-Mr. and Mrs. Frederic Stauffer and children, Evelyn and Varner, are leaving today for New York. They will sail for Germany on the S. S. Berengevia, June 9. They will spend several months in Germany which is Mr. Stauffer's native land.

Jackson Progress Argus -News has been received here that Miss Ruth Jinks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Jinks, has recently been appointed postmistress in Memphis, Tennessee. Miss Jinks, who has been assistant to the postmaster for the past five years, has been appointed to fill the unexpired term of the late J. C. Judson.

Atlanta Journal-"Lov-Despair," starring Sally Lane and Warren Walker is being presented at the Paramount Theatre this week. It is the most entertaining and thrilling picture that has been shown at that theatre this

Miss Lane is hailed by the foremost motion picture critics as the greatest emotional actress since the retirement of Greta Garbo. Her role as Francesca Dubarry, the French noblewoman, is acted with artistic delicacy equal to that of Garbo herself.

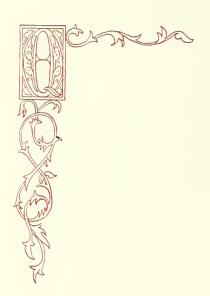

Richmond Herald -The Anderson murder trial will open tomorrow. Lucia Anderson, a beautiful young heiress, will be tried for the murder of Jerry Craft, a night club entertainer. Miss Sue Hutcheson, noted criminal lawyer of Atlanta, Georgia, will arrive this evening to assist in the defense.

Atlanta Journal - Mr. and Mrs. Robert Alvin Dempsey announce the engagement of their daughter, Ruth, to Dr. Lancelot Algenon Kennedy of Boulden, Colorado. The wedding will be an event of the early fall.

Miss Dempsey is the only daughter of her parents, and Mr. Ralph Dempsey is her only brother. She is a young lady of unusual charm and accomplishment. Since her graduation from LaGrange College, she has received her master's degree from Northwestern University. For the past seven years she has been Dean of Women at the University of Colorado,

Dr. Kennedy is the son of Maria Dickson Kennedy and the late Charles Thornton Kennedy of Boston, Massachusetts. He was educated at Princeton University, where he received his A.B., M.A., and Ph.D. degrees. He is also associated with the University of Colorado where he holds the chair of history.

Night from L. C. Hill

Pale shadows fall
On the vast silent earth;
As with a dusky veil
Night covers all.
The lights renew
Their glimmer in the dark;
Below the city sleeps
In silent dew.

Comforting Love

A million stars which decked a moonless sky,
Each of its own light, cared not that all
The humble mortals here could never spy
The beauty of the night, and too, might fall.
Then, lo, a great reflector from the east
Came up and flooded all this earth with light.
The darkness faded, and the blindness ceased,
And mortal man found beauty in the night.
A Comforter came to this world and made
The stars of sorrow and of earthly woe,
Obscured with light reflected from above,
Under the mystic brightness, slowly fade.
The love of God fell on his face, and so,
Was scattered o'er the earth, a Father's love.

Happy Landings

When there's an airplane In the air, Something keeps my eye Trained there. Something opens my lips For prayer For happy landings! When I think of the folks Who care How that airplane today Does fare, And wish for all the men Who dare Happy landings! Then I see how I play A part. Suppose that man were near My heart, I'd wish him good luck From the start, And happy landings!

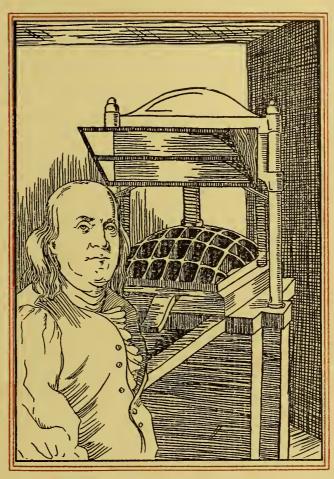

-Virginia Franklin, '36

Invocation

Come, my Soul, keep tryst with me,
Of late I have been harsh to thee.
Because I harked to earthly views,
I shut thee in—a pale recluse
When man's statutes thou wouldst defy
I cast thee out and bid thee die.
I trampled thee down, I bruised, I crushed
The pain was mine—your voice was hushed.
Come, my Soul, keep tryst with me,
Guide me always, and make me see.

Friendship

We cannot live without it,

It's the greatest thing on earth.

'Tis happiness within itself,

It lasts to death from birth.

We cannot live without it,

It's a ray from life above,

'Tis love, for God has giv'n it,

And God is love.

THE

DUNSON MILLS

LaGRANGE, GEORGIA

MANY years ago LaGrange was named by one of her first citizens "The City of Elms and Roses;" since that time she has also become the City of Cotton Mills; and her residents may justly feel a pride in either name.

The Dunson Mills lies on the eastern edge of the city, between the Atlanta and West Point Railroad and the Atlanta Highway, Route 14. Its buildings and grounds are among the most attractive in the South today. The main mill building and offices are surrounded by a wide expanse of velvety lawns, green the year round, and appropriately planted with flowering and evergreen shrubs. The mill building is of red brick with white trim, and has a base planting of shrubbery. The tenement village has some three hundred houses of three- and four-room types, at all times kept freshly painted white, with green trim. Every home is provided with electric lights and running water and has ample room surrounding it for flower and vegetable gardens, chickens and a cow if desired.

The City of LaGrange rents from the Company its splendid two-story brick school building and operates there a grammar school. The Company operates at its own expense a well-equipped kindergarten for the small children, and a domestic science school for the girls of the fifth and sixth grades.

A full-time graduate nurse is regularly employed by the Company for the welfare of its employees and their families, and group life insurance at a very low rate is provided for all who wish it.

The Company a few years ago built two modern brick churches, one of Old English and one of Colonial design, and besides furnishing light, heat and janitor service for the congregations using them, also contributes substantially to the support of their resident pastors.

THE DUNSON MILLS extends greetings and good wishes not only to the LaGrange College Seniors of 1934, but to all the girls on The Hill.
